40517	EIMAS Project Colloquium II	Cq	5LP	2	This module provides the possibility to jointly prepare on the one hand the final project (field-work or internship) of each student and on the other hand the EIMAS Winter School that takes place at the end of the third semester. Students are asked to work together in groups and to present their preparation steps in different formats, and will get an intensive training in project management, marketing and networking
40518	EIMAS Project Colloquium IV	Cq		2
40519	Religion in/from Africa	S	5-10	2	The course offers multi-disciplinary perspectives on the different religious traditions of the African continent and the diasporas. In particular, it deals with historical and contemporary expressions of Islam, Christianity and so-called African religious traditions: How have these religious expressions been studied so far? How are they interrelated, and how do they connect to epistemological, social and political questions? How do they contribute to local and global dynamics? By dealing with this set of questions, the module introduces theories and methods of a non-normative study of religion.
40530	EIMAS MA Thesis Writing Workshop	Cs		2
40600	EIMAS Spring School on Qualitative Methods	Cs		2
PW011	Scanning Electron Microscopy (SEM)	L		2	Basic concepts of scanning electron microscopy (SEM) and microanalysis are complemented by advanced techniques for soft materials and composites materials. The lectures contain: Basic concepts, Instrumentation, Sample Preparation, Imaging, Spectroscopic analysis (EDS/WDS), Beam damage, LowVac, ESEM, cryo-SEM, 3D reconstruction and particle analysis.
PW012	Practical Training Scanning Electron Microscopy (SEM)	PT	6	1,3	An overview of the SEM instruments and methods available in the BPI Keylab Electron Microscopy will be given in a Lab tour. After evaluation of the relevant methods for the students' research projects, an individual practical introduction is given with the aim to independently operate a suitable SEM. The students are further supported along the user operation to optimize the SEM results for their research projects.
SAB03	Bambara: 3 Basic Course 3 (Language 1/2: Intermediate Course)	E	5	2	Anyone who has acquired proficiency in Bambara (or Bamanankan) will easily be able to get along in other Manding varieties such as Jula, Maninka and Mandinka. Apart from in Mali, Eastern Senegal, Gambia, Burkina Faso, and the Ivory Coast, there are many speakers of Manding varieties in those parts of Europe where diasporas from these countries are living. The language courses 1–4 introduce students to the structure of Bambara and exercise their active language skills. These skills include listening comprehension, speaking, writing, reading and grammar. The aim is to develop an appropriate level of language proficiency to meaningfully participate in everyday conversations. Learn more about the Bambara courses at the University of Bayreuth at http://kdombrowsky.de . The language courses 1–4 introduce students to the structure of Bambara and exercise their active language skills. The lessons are organised into two parts: firstly, the grammar oriented: which introduces and helps students master the basic features of Bambara words, sentences and texts; and secondly, the communication oriented: where students develop an appropriate level of language proficiency to meaningfully participate in every day conversations. Learn more about the Bambara courses at the University of Bayreuth at http://kdombrowsky.de
SAH03	Hausa: 3 Basic Course 3 (Language 1/2: Intermediate Course)	E	5	2	Hausa is the largest and most well-documented language in West Africa, with more than 50 million L1 speakers, mostly in Northern Nigeria and Niger. Furthermore, Hausa is also spoken as a language of wider communication in many states across West Africa. Students can take the four Hausa language courses within two semesters, during which time they will learn the morphological structure of Hausa and acquire communicative skills for everyday use. Information on Hausaland and Hausa culture will play an import role in the tuition. The following teaching material will be used: videos and scripts from Hausar Baka of R.G. Schuh and Abdullahi Bature, alongside material from Spoken Hausa written by J.R. Cowan & R.G. Schuh, I., Chekaraou's Mù zántaa Dà Harshèn Hausa, and the instructor's own papers.

SAH04	Hausa: 4 Basic Course 4 (Language 1/2: Advanced Course – Block Course)	E		2	Continuation of the lessons taught in Hausa Basic Course 3. Prerequisite for participation: Passed Hausa 3 Basic Course 3 exam.
SAS03	Swahili: 3 Basic Course 3	E	5	4	Swahili is a Bantu language from the East Coast of Africa. It is the national and official language in both Tanzania and Kenya but is also spoken in neighbouring countries towards the west and south. It is the most widely used African language in communication and education. The course is structured in four basic levels – four basic courses (levels 1–4) – which can be taken within two semesters. The classes are addressed to learners who want to acquire language competence for daily communication in eastern Africa, as well as to anyone who may wish to study Swahili linguistics and literature. Therefore, alongside skills in reading (kusoma), writing (kuandika), listening (kusikiliza) and speaking (kuzungumza) Swahili, students will also receive a detailed explanation of the language's grammatical structure. The transmission of extensive social and cultural knowledge is also integrated into the material used. (Note that Swahili 1–4 a and 1–4 b are two identical parallel courses – students may only enrol in one).
SAS04	Swahili: 4 Basic Course 4 (Block Course)	E		2
SAS05	Swahili: Advanced Course (A1/ Language in Application – Utamaduni wa Waswahili)	E		2	The course explores aspects of Swahili culture relating to language, history, literature, music and popular culture. It aims at enhancing the comprehension of Swahili and deepening language competence through exercises in reading, translating, listening to Swahili texts, and watching video material. Main sources will range from TV programs, radio broadcasting, literary texts, newspaper articles, and songs.
